Get to know Capella University: NeuroPsychiatric Hospitals new education partner!

NPH and Capella University have partnered to provide you with access to higher education that's competency-based, applicable to the real world, and affordable. Capella is an accredited university, nationally recognized, offering online degree programs and certificates designed to fit the schedules of working professionals.

Capella offers two online learning formats—GuidedPath or FlexPath—so you can choose the one that works best for you. Competency-based education means you'll gain knowledge and skills that transfer into your job right away.

If you're thinking about a return to school to earn a bachelor's or master's degree, learn more about Capella and take advantage of these special tuition offers for eligible NPH employees:

- FREE College Courses until July 31st, 2020
General education courses offered through SOPHIA Learning
- $6,000 GuidedPath scholarship
Plus, an additional 10% tuition discount.
- 50% off your first 12-week FlexPath session
Plus, a 10% tuition discount off each subsequent session.
